

Take part in...

SUMMER WORKCAMPS FOR NATURE CONSERVATION

Have you been volunteering at local nature conservation activities?

Then, this is for you: As part of the LIFE ENPLC project we are organizing 4 environmental workcamps on private land across Europe, for 7 to 15 days. We want to provide an opportunity for volunteers to go to a different country and learn how nature conservation is done there, to bring that knowledge back home.

environmental management

haying

nature conservation

fire-watch

habitat restoration

mowing

Flanders, Belgium.

Management works in order to preserve the existing biodiversity (mowing, haying, pruning,...), flora and fauna observation. 10 days.

Coa Valley, Portugal.

Fire surveillance programme around Ermo das Águas Rewilding Area, with opportunities to join other activities of Rewilding Portugal. 7 days.

Catalonia, Spain.

Camp management and restoration of protected wetlands, in Sils lake, Girona. 15 days. Young volunteers between 18 to 30 years old.

Rheinsberg, Germany.

A week of hands-on nature conservation and fun in the Rheinsberg Lake Region north of Berlin. For nature lovers of all ages. 7 days.

Let us know if you are interested via this link:

Subscribe

Organized by:

A LIFE ENPLC initiative

ENPLC EUROPEAN NETWORKS FOR PRIVATE LAND CONSERVATION

